and werrying if people like me or are talking crap about me. like it's honestly getting to be way to much and i just am so done with pretending im fine and it's all good because im not and it's just like people say this stuff that makes you feel like shit and it's like why, what makes them think that being like thet is okay it's like people will see this and be like she's a attention whore and all this like WHY people are asing through shit constantly and you never no who or what so just be nice and worry about YOU
